Administrative history / Biographical sketch

Note

INWES is the International Network for Women Engineers and Scientists. It is a global non-profit organization that serves to strengthen the capacity of individuals and organizations related to women in STEM worldwide through the exchange of information, networking, and advocacy activities to increase the presence of women in STEM worldwide and to be a responsible voice and influence on scientific issues for the benefit of society and the environment.

The International Conference for Women Engineers and Scientists (ICWES) has been taking place for twelve years before delegates decided to create a network of organizations that represent women in STEM fields in 2001. INWES was founded in 2002, and took over the management of the ICWES which first took place in 1964 in New York and has met every 3–4 years since then. ICWES serves as a meeting point for women practitioners in science and engineering from across the world. Since INWES took over the management of the conference, it has taken place in Ottawa, Canada (2002); Seoul, Korea (2005); Lille, France (2008); Adelaide, Australia (2011); Los Angeles, USA (2014); and New Delhi, India (2017). ICWES 18 will take place in Coventry, UK, in 2021.

In 2003, INWES was declared a non-profit corporation under Canadian law. In April 2008, INWES became an official NGO partner of the operational type with UNESCO. This partnership involves dynamic cooperation to help women and girls worldwide to have access to education, especially in Science and Engineering. Since 2017, INWES has had consultative status with ECOSOC (United Nations Economic and Social Council) and in January 2019, INWES was admitted by the Conference of the Parties as observers to the UNFCCC (United Nations Framework Convention on Climate Change). INWES supports the work of UN Women and the Commission for the Status of Women. As of June 2019, INWES represents over 250,000 women from 60 countries around the globe. INWES continues to exist as an organization and it sponsors workshops, conferences, and research, publishes a newsletter, and hosts regional meetings throughout the world.

Monique Frize, Claire Deschênes, Gail Mattson were INWES founding members.

Monique Frize was president from 2002 to 2008.

Claire Deschênes was general secretary from 2002 to 2008.

Jung Sun Kim is current president since 2020.

INWES est le réseau international des femmes ingénieurs et scientifiques. Il s'agit d'une organisation mondiale à but non lucratif qui vise à renforcer la capacité des personnes et des organisations liées aux femmes dans les STIM dans le monde entier par l'échange d'informations, la mise en réseau et les activités de sensibilisation afin d'accroître la présence des femmes dans les STIM dans le monde entier et d'être une voix responsable et d'influencer les questions scientifiques au profit de la société et de l'environnement. La Conférence internationale des femmes ingénieurs et scientifiques (ICWES) a eu lieu pendant douze ans avant que les délégués ne décident de créer un réseau d'organisations représentant les femmes dans les domaines des STIM en 2001. INWES a été fondé en 2002 et a repris la gestion de l'ICWES, qui a eu lieu pour la première fois en 1964 à New York et s'est réunie tous les trois ou quatre ans depuis lors. L'ICWES sert de point de rencontre pour les femmes pratiquant les sciences et l'ingénierie dans le monde entier. Depuis que l'INWES a repris la gestion de la conférence, celle-ci a eu lieu à Ottawa, Canada (2002) ; Séoul, Corée (2005) ; Lille, France (2008) ; Adélaïde, Australie (2011) ; Los Angeles, États-Unis (2014) ; et New Delhi, Inde (2017). ICWES 18 aura lieu à Coventry, au Royaume-Uni, en 2021.

En 2003, INWES a été déclarée société à but non lucratif en vertu de la loi canadienne. En avril 2008, INWES est devenu une ONG partenaire officielle de type opérationnel de l'UNESCO. Ce partenariat implique une coopération dynamique pour aider les femmes et les filles du monde entier à avoir accès à l'éducation, en particulier dans le domaine des sciences et de l'ingénierie. Depuis 2017, INWES a un statut consultatif auprès de l'ECOSOC (Conseil économique et social des Nations unies) et en janvier 2019, INWES a été admis par la Conférence des Parties en tant qu'observateurs à la CCNUCC (Convention-cadre des Nations unies sur les changements climatiques). INWES soutient le travail d'ONU Femmes et de la Commission de la condition de la femme. En juin 2019, INWES représente plus de 250 000 femmes de 60 pays du monde entier. INWES continue d'exister en tant qu'organisation et parraine des ateliers, des conférences et des recherches, publie un bulletin d'information et organise des réunions régionales dans le monde entier.

Monique Frize, Claire Deschênes et Gail Mattson sont les membres fondateurs d'INWES.

Monique Frize a été présidente de 2002 à 2008.

Claire Deschênes a été secrétaire générale de 2002 à 2008.

Jung Sun Kim est l'actuel président depuis 2020.

Notes

Immediate source of acquisition

Le fonds INWES est un fonds ouvert.

Le fonds a fait l'objet de plusieurs donations. Les premières donations proviennent de Monique Frize, présidente fondatrice de l'INWES de 2002 à 2008, et de Claire Deschênes, secrétaire générale de l'INWES de 2002 à 2008. Des transferts ponctuels des documents historiques de l'INWES seront versés au service des archives.

The INWES fonds is an open fonds.

The fonds was built up through several donations. The first donations came from Monique Frize, founding president of INWES from 2002 to 2008, and Claire Deschênes, INWES secretary general from 2002 to 2008. Ad hoc transfers of historical records from INWES to the Archives are expected.

Accruals

Further accruals are expected.
